The basics of seed starting indoors

Conducted by Sara Rutherford, Extension agent

Program Location

Washington Park Community Center

Spring is just around the corner! Join us to learn successful ways to start seeds indoors this spring. Learn from our Extension agent and Master Gardeners about the best ways to start seeds indoors, even if you're on a budget. Gain hands on experience by planting your own seeds to take home and grow for this year's garden. To register, please call 434-348-4223 or email Sara, srutherford@vt.edu by March 21, 2025. This is a free class and space is limited.
